KRAMER PRESIDENT OF ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Dean Hodgkins, Secretary, and Larner, Treasurer, Re-elected at Business Meeting.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB SINGS.

At the annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the University held last Tuesday night in the Assembly Hall of the G Street buildings, Stephen E. Kramer, the Assistant Superintendent of Schools of the District of Columbia, was elected the President of the Association for the ensuing year, succeeding Dr. D. Olin Leech in that position. The six vice-presidents who were elected were Percival Hall, President of Gallaudet College; John Paul Earnest, W. H. Draper, Dr. E. G. Seibert, Professor Mark Woodward, and Delos H. Smith. Dean Howard W. Hodgkins, as Secretary, and John B. Larner, as Treasurer, were unanimously re-elected for the year to come.

Addresses were made by the newly elected President and by Admiral Stockton. In the course of his remarks Admiral Stockton laid emphasis on the value of self-supporting students to a college.

The Executive Committee was instructed to consider the advisability of the establishment of an alumni publication and to confer with the trustees with regard to substituting a single-ballot system of electing the alumni members of the Board of Trustees for the double-ballot method now employed.

The Girls' Glee Club was present and favored the audience with a number of selections, including the recently published prize song of Miss Worrell.

Among those present were Admiral Stockton, Levi Russell Alden and Miss Alden, E. Roger Boyle, Leroy S. Boyd, Gertrude R. Brigham, Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Butler, Lillian Carpenter, H. B. Chubb, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Clephane, Richard Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Corson, Harry C. Davis, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Dobson, Prof. N. W. Dougherty, H. W. Draper, Donald L. "Well," said the man, as he turned over his last cent to the lawyer, "turn about is fair play. I broke the law and the law broke me."

MISS HAYWOOD TO TALK ABOUT SPAIN.

Girls' Glee Club to Sing at Lecture This Evening.

Tonight at 8 o'clock Miss Mabel Haywood, the field secretary for the International Institute for Girls in Spain will lecture in the Assembly Hall of the Department of Arts and Sciences on "Spain, Her Women and Her Customs." Miss Haywood is a graduate of Goucher and has spent some time in teaching and studying in Spain. She has recently come from Pennsylvania where she has lectured at several schools and colleges.

The lecture is public to all the men and women of the University and all local college women. In addition to the lecture, the Girls' Glee Club will be present and sing.

PYRAMID HOLDS SPRING ELECTIONS

Senior Honor Society to Initiate Upperclassmen Prominent in Student Activities.

MANY ELIGIBLES FOUND.

With the coming of spring, interest in the two upper classes is centering on the elections to Pyramid, the Senior Honor Society, election to which is the highest honor which can be conferred upon a undergraduate. At a recent meeting of the society eligibles were considered and a selection made of those most qualified. Public announcement of the names of those elected will not be made until after the initiation which will be held Monday, May 10, and will be followed by the annual banquet.

It is an encouraging sign that there were more than fifteen men in the Senior and Junior classes possessing qualifications for membership in the Society. As the total number of initiates is limited by the constitution of the organization only those who have the highest qualifications were elected. The men elected have all gained distinction in one or more branches of student endeavor and are well-known to the student body by reason of their activities.

The Pyramid was founded about six years ago for the purpose of promoting general interest in student activities by banding together those members of the graduating class who had displayed energy and ability in the various branches of undergraduate endeavor. Only members of the Senior class are eligible to membership, but they may be elected at the close of their Junior year. The Society includes among its members wearers of the "W" in all branches of athletics, members of intercollegiate debating teams, editors and business managers of the Hatchet and the Cherry Tree, and managers of teams. Election to the Society is looked upon as a reward for self-sacrificing effort in the interest of George Washington and especially of the student body. It should be the honest ambition of every male student who enters the University to make the Pyramid.

DR. E. P. MAGRUDER PASSES AWAY IN SERBIA

Washington Surgeon, Graduate of G. W. U., Succumbs to European Typhus Plague.

Dr. Ernest Pendleton Magruder, '02, who has been heroically facing almost certain death in caring for the plague victims in Serbia, died last week at Belgrade after an illness of only five days. The Red Cross headquarters here had known of his illness since Easter, but in accordance with their custom no news of it had been given to his relatives.

Dr. Magruder died in Belgrade, the Serbian capital, to which all the American surgeons and nurses are removed as soon as they fall victims to the plague. Dr. Edward Ryan was in charge of all the American relief agents in Belgrade until he himself was stricken, and Dr. Magruder came to his relief. Last advices to the Red Cross headquarters were that Dr. Ryan's condition is improved.

Under the quarantine regulations the body of Dr. Magruder cannot be brought to this country within a year and then only in a hermetically sealed casket. It will eventually be brought home for interment.

Dr. Ethan Flagg Butler, the other Washington surgeon who went with Dr. Magruder in charge of the two American Red Cross units sent to Gervalla last November, is the only one of the six American surgeons and Red Cross trained nurses who has not fallen a victim of the fever epidemic. Dr. Magruder is the second American surgeon to die of typhus fever. The other was Dr. James F. Donnelly, of Brooklyn.

Dr. Magruder was well known in Washington and very popular. He had more than twelve years' hospital practice here and was for four years superintendent of the Emergency Hospital. For the last five years and up to the time he was sent to Serbia by the Red Cross he was professor of clinical surgery in Georgetown University. He had an office in the Faragut, on 17th street, and a large Washington practice.

He took an A. B. and an A. M. degree, the latter in 1900, from the Johns Hopkins University and was in the Medical Class of 1902 of George Washington. He was a fellow of the American College of Surgeons.

GREEK PROMENADE A GREAT SUCCESS

Over One Hundred Couples Grace Annual Dance of Interfraternity Association.

Bright lights, pretty girls, good music—they were all there. The annual promenade of the Interfraternity Association of the University was held at the Raleigh Hotel on Friday, April 9.

That this dance is regarded as the big social event of the year by the fraternity men, was evidenced by the fact that every fraternity in the Association had its full quota present. Over one hundred couples "tripped the light fantastic" until the lateness or rather earliness of the hour made it impossible to longer continue the gaiety of the evening.

The ballroom of the Raleigh was decorated with the banners of the various fraternities as well as the Buff and Blue of the University. During intermission a very excellent supper was served in an adjoining room, while the orchestra rendered several popular selections.

This is the fourth annual dance given under the auspices of the Interfraternity Association, each one of which has been a decided success. For many years it was the custom to give a "Students' Ball" each year, but for the past four years, it seems that the Interfraternity Prom. has taken its place with great success.

The chaperones for the dance were President and Mrs. Charles H. Stockton, Dean and Mrs. Everett Fraser, Dean and Mrs. William Borden and Dean and Mrs. William C. Ruediger.

The committee in charge consisted of Russell L. Duval, Chairman, A. W. Kenner, Roy T. Haskell and Frank W. Stoeber.

MRS. H. E. HODGKINS DEAD.

Mother of Dean Hodgkins Buried Tuesday.

Mrs. Harriet E. Hodgkins, mother of Dean Hodgkins, and a longtime resident of Washington, died on last Sunday evening at her home, the Manor House, and was buried on Tuesday. Mrs. Hodgkins had been ill for a long time. At the funeral the pallbearers were six of her grandsons, Howard W. Hodgkins, '13; George W. Hodgkins, '15; H. Grant Hodgkins, Jr., '16, and Bradley Hodgkins, all of Washington, and Allan King and Howard King, of East Orange, N. J.

She is survived by her children, Dean Hodgkins, Professor H. G. Hodgkins, Miss Ida M. Hodgkins and Miss Jessie E. Hodgkins.

STOCKTON TO ADDRESS HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The History of the University to be His Topic Next Tuesday.

On next Tuesday evening, Admiral Stockton will address the Columbia Historical Society on "The History of the George Washington University." The lecture will be published as the June Bulletin of the University.

COMMITTEES NAMED FOR LAW BANQUET

Semi-Centennial Includes Big Open Meeting and Banquet.

NOTED MEN TO SPEAK.

All committees have been appointed and all plans matured for the celebration of the Law School's Fiftieth Anniversary on April thirtieth and May first.

The first event of the celebration will be an open meeting of the alumni of the Law School under the auspices of the Columbian-George Washington Law School Association at the University Club on Friday, April thirtieth at which the Association will be the host. The annual business meeting and election of officers will then be held followed by an entertaining program, including speeches by prominent alumni. It has been planned to make the occasion a general reunion. Refreshments will be served. The chairman of the committee of five which has charge of this general meeting is Mr. David A. Baer, '12.

The big event of the semi-centennial celebration will be the Third Annual Law School Dinner at Rauscher's, Saturday evening, May first. As a fitting culmination to the semi-centennial celebration the plans for this dinner quite surpass those of the previous two years. The attendance is expected of a much larger number from among the alumni than at any previous affair. A committee of fifty composed of representatives from each class from 1866 to 1915, inclusive, has been organized to promote the interest of alumni in the celebration and it is planned to have the alumni seated by classes at the dinner. The music this year will be under the direction of Arthur H. Delbert, '13, who will be well remembered as having served in a similar capacity last year and the previous year. This year as last, original songs will be a feature.

The program of speeches is an extraordinarily attractive one. Dean Fraser of the Law School will be the toastmaster. The committee hopes to have the Secretary of War to speak, The Honorable John W. Davis, Solicitor General, Admiral Stockton, Chief Justice Walter Clark, '70, of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, William Bruce King, '80, President of the Law School Association, and Shirley P. Jones, '15, representing the student body, will be the speakers.

Tickets were placed on sale yesterday, the price being as before, $2.50. Agents have been appointed for each class to have charge of the sale. Owing to the limited capacity of Rauscher's students are being advised to secure tickets early to insure a place. The committee in charge is as follows:

Faculty: M. L. Ferson, Archibald King, J. Lewis Parks, Jr.; Seniors: Breedlove Smith, L. E. Bratton, E. W. Stanley; Juniors: H. H. Semmes, L. T. Breuninger, H. T. Shaver; Freshmen: J. A. Osolinach, D. Cannon, D. M. Earll; Law School Association: William B. King, William C. Van Vleck, George W. Dalzell; Treasurer: Archibald King.

ENGINEERS TO VISIT UNION STATION PLANT.

The Engineering Society is making plans to visit in the near future the Union Station power plant. This plant is located at First and I Streets Northeast and supplies the entire terminal system with light and power generated by three big high-speed steam turbines. The system is elaborate in its nicety of detail and the many modern features of its construction.

EXAMS BEFORE MAY 30.

The plan which was suggested several weeks ago, calling for a schedule which would dispose of all exams before the holiday on May 30 has been found to be inadvisable for several reasons.

First, the faculty regards the school year as too short already and to establish such a precedent would simply result in a perpetual curtailment of the school year. In talking to a Hatchet reporter, a member of the faculty said, "We have already a year as short if not shorter by several recitations than any other of the large Eastern colleges, and further shortening would be detrimental to the standing of the school."

Second, this year is about three recitations shorter than the average school year for George Washington, so that it is even more inadvisable for this year.

Third, it has been found on discussion with many students that they desire the thirtieth as a study period for examinations and the present arrangement is desired by them to remain.

It was formerly the case, until a few years ago, to hold examinations on the thirtieth, but this plan was abandoned.

On the whole, therefore, it will be found inadvisable on the one hand to try to change the present arrangement and impossible on the other hand to get the proper consent to do it.

RIFLE CLUB MEETS.

Plans for the Intercollegiate Outdoor Match were discussed at a meeting of the Rifle Club held April 14, at the Medical School. Arrangements are under way for the securing of the rifle range of the District National Guard at Congress Heights as the place to practice.

C. S. Shields of the Dental School was elected to fill the position of Secretary-Treasurer, made vacant by the resignation of W. M. Yater.

Nearly twenty men have signified their intention of trying for the team to represent G. W. U. in the match, which will be shot some time between the 5th and the 15th of June.

If you are interested in rifle shooting and wish to try for the team send your name to C. S. Shields, 505 L Street.

Subscriptions for the bound copies of the Hatchet covering the full year should be sent in now.

TERRY TELLS BENEFITS OF MEN'S GLEE CLUB.

Fellow Students of George Washington University:

The Men's Glee Club is this year making a special effort to become a successful student organization, and as it is in every way a laudable organization, and as it has the full endorsement of the Faculty, every student should be sufficiently interested in its welfare to help make this a banner year in its history. For that reason, we appeal to the student body for its support and encouragement.

The main purpose of the Glee Club is to develop a strong musical organization in the University that can take its place on an equal footing with the Glee Clubs of other universities. One of the great drawbacks of University life here is the lack of well developed and well supported student activities and organizations, and until the time comes when we have all of these things, our University will never be looked on with the same respect of the average layman as he gives to other Universities that have these things. It is, therefore, necessary for the students of George Washington to get together and support the student organizations in a way that will insure their success if they wish to have their Alma Mater looked up to as other Universities are looked up to in the college world. The Glee Club is one of the things that every college and university should have, and it is one of the many things that the student body of George Washington has not had for a long time. Can we not get together now and make the Glee Club one of the strong, permanent organizations of the University?

The membership is double that of last year, and as Prof. Swett has volunteered to direct the Club, we are certain of being successful musically. All that is necessary now is the support of the students. Prof. Swett is amply able to direct the Club, as he has had extensive experience, and whoever comes out for membership in the Club will not only be helping to make a worthy organization successful, but will at the same time be learning a great deal about music. Is it not worth a little extra time and effort, fellow student, to join with us in making the Club a success in every way?

About May 10, we are going to give an entertainment, which will be in the nature of an original musical comedy, and we are now bending every effort toward making it a success. We need more singers, however, and it is hoped that at least a few more men will come out and try out for membership with us. It is well worth the time and trouble to be among the "pioneers" in placing the Glee Club on a sound basis, and it is a thing that you can look back on in future years with a great deal of pleasure, knowing that you were instrumental in building it up. We, therefore, appeal to every singer in the University to come out to our rehearsals. The following men are the representatives in the various departments, and can furnish you with any information you wish. All you need to do is to ask them.

Law School, William Tonne and Thomas Rhoads; Dental School, William Sweet and Harry Gilman; Medical School, J. J. Figueras and Mario Julia; Arts and Sciences, J. L. Mitchell, A. P. Harrison and L. C. Terry. Rehearsals will be held at 2022 F St., on Tuesday and Thursday nights at 10 p.m. This hour is made necessary on account of the Dental students, who do not get out of class until that time.

It is hoped that all who can sing will turn out to the next rehearsal, and if you don't sing, give us your support, and come to the big entertainment the first part of May.

Yours for the success of the Glee Club.

LEO C. TERRY,
President.

Of course, if you're a senior you want a copy of "Res Gestae," the "Periscope" or the "Caduceus."

ENGINEERS STUDY STEEL AND VISIT BALTIMORE

J. H. Wilson Talks on Iron Founding and the Boys See It Done.

DEAN MUNROE GUIDES PARTY.

After a talk delivered on Wednesday, April 7, by Mr. Joseph H. Wilson, a teacher in the McKinley Manual Training School, and a student in mechanical engineering in the College of Engineering, on "Iron and Iron Founding," the Engineering Society journeyed on Saturday to the plant of the Maryland Steel Company, Sparrows Point, Maryland, under the guidance of Dean Munroe of the School of Graduate Studies in conjunction with his class in the metallurgy of iron and steel and saw the principal operations in the reduction and casting of the iron and the making and working of steel.

In his talk before the Society Mr. Wilson explained the production of cast iron, wrought iron and steel from the mine to the finished article, dwelling particularly on cast iron. He diagrammed the blast furnace, the cupola, and the sand mould for casting, and told of the business of pattern making which he has followed in numerous iron works the country over. His remarks made the trip to the Point clearer and more enjoyable.

The Society, after a 7-o'clock start on Saturday morning, heard the careful explanations of Dean Munroe and the employees of the steel company in regard to the immense blast furnaces, the coke ovens, the gas internal-combustion air-compressing engines, the gas by-products plant, and the steam engines. The cupolas, the rolling mill and the other machinery and equipment that enters into the manufacture of steel rails were observed in operation. The interesting and pleasing sight of the blast furnaces being tapped was viewed by the students, 140 tons molten iron which had just been reduced by the blast furnace flowing out in a bright red stream into large crucibles, ready to be taken to the steel mills. The visit was ended about 1 o'clock, and the afternoon and night were spent in sightseeing.

VET. MEDICS HEAR
FOUR FINE PAPERS.

Three Sophs and one Junior Talk at Monthly Meeting of Society.

The April meeting of the Veterinary Medical Association or the University was held Saturday, April 10, 1915, at the Veterinary College.

After the regular routine business had been disposed of R. H. Lewis, '17, presented a paper on "Preparation of Black-leg Vaccine"; Robert Nichols, '17, spoke on "The Thoroughbred"; W. C. Pulsifer, '17, discussed the necessity for "Sanitary Buildings," and F. P. Wilcox, '16, read a paper on "Plain Facts and Statements in regard to Tuberculosis." All papers were interesting and were greatly enjoyed by those present.

The last meeting of the Association for the school year 1914-1915 will be held early in May, and all members are requested to be present.

REGISTRATION SHOWS LARGE AND UNIFORM INCREASE.

The comparative registration figures recently published by the University authorities show a large increase for each year of the last three over that of the preceding year. The gain from 1912-13 to 1913-14 is the largest, both numerically and in percentage. The registration this year is 179 in excess of that last year.

RICE ANNOUNCES
STUDENT CAMPS

Mr. G. W. U. Man:—You are doubtless making plans for your vacation this summer; why not consider the Student Camps of Instruction?

Here is an opportunity to combine in a five weeks vacation, maximum instructional benefit, pleasure and recreation with minimum expense. This is indeed an opportunity. Where else could one spend a more profitable vacation; where else could one make such advantageous acquaintances as at these Camps?

There will be two Student Camps in the east, one at Chickamauga Park, Chattanooga, Tenn., the other located at Plattsburg Barracks, N. Y. These camps will be in operation from July 5 to August 8, 1915. The sites are ideal. The Chattanooga Camp will be adjacent to Fort Oglethorpe, and on a spur of Snodgrass Hill, where Gen. Thomas made his memorable stand, the spot being in easy reach of an electric car line which by a quick run through charming woods carries passengers to Chattanooga. Fine boulevards also lead to the city and through the park itself. Chattanooga is a progressive and hospitable city with excellent hotels; from a social standpoint, a most excellent time is assured. The national park of 5,500 acres, with Lookout Mountain, made famous by the "Battle Above the Clouds" is well worth making the trip to see. The Plattsburg Camp will be located within a stone's throw of Lake Champlain. It is unnecessary to speak of the beauties of Lake Champlain and the Adirondacks.

Further information can be secured by writing to Capt. Halstead Dorey, in charge of Instruction Camps, Governors Island, New York City.

B. ALFRED DUMM, PH. D., '00, MAKES TRANSLATION OF ROSSINI'S "STABAT MATER"

A recent translation in verse of the oratorio "Stabat Mater," composed by the famous Italian Rossini, made by the Reverend B. Alfred Dumm, of Plymouth, New Hampshire, has excited general admiration by its beauty. The work is of peculiar interest to George Washingtonians since Dr. Dumm received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University in 1900, and was also a member of the faculty for a year, lecturing in Philosophy in the Corcoran Scientific School. He received his A. B. and A. M. degrees from the Western Maryland College and then came to George Washington. Since his graduation from the University he has been a student at Harvard University and has been a minister of several Congregational churches in New England. His present home is Plymouth, New Hampshire.

His translation of "Stabat Mater," together with the original in Latin, is printed below.

1. Introduction—Chorus and Quartet. 1
Stabat mater dolorosa By the cross stood Mary weeping.
Juxta crucem lacrymosa, There her mother's vigil keeping.
Dum pendebat Filius. While her Son hung suffering.
2. Air (Tenor) 2
Cujus animam gementem Hers the soul with apprehension,
Contristatam et dolentem And at length in pain and anguish,
Pertransivit gladius. By the sword transfixed.
O quam tristis et afflicta O how smitten, brokenhearted,
Fuit illa benedicta From her treasured Hope now
Mater Unigeniti; parted.
Quae moerebat et dolebat Mother of the First-born One.
Et tremebat, cum videbat How the tides of grief and sorrow
Nati poenas inclyti. Flood her world and measure borrow
3. Duet (First and Second Soprano)
Quis est homo qui non fletet, From His fame who helpless
Christi matrem si videret hangs in blood.
In tanto supplicio?
Quis non posset contristari
Piam matrem contemplari
Dolentem cum Filio?
4. Air (Bass)
Pro peccatis suae gentis Who is he who, seeing, would not Vidit Jesum in tormentis, Weep with her who, loving, could Et flagellis subditum. not
Vidit suum dulcem natum Save her soul's bright hope?
Morientem desolatum Who that cannot share her anguish,
Dum emisit spiritum. In her grief his own distinguish.
With the Sufferer mystically
one?
5. Recitative (Bass) and Chorus—
without accomp. 4
Eia, mater, fons amoris, For the sins of His own people
Me sentire vim doloris She sees Jesus, spotless, bearing Fac, ut tecum lugeam. All the world's great woe.
Fac ut ardeat cor meum Her sweet child, His mighty spirit,
In amando Christum Deum, Torn, majestic, 'gainst all limit
Ut sibi complacem. Breathes its passage forth.
6. Quartet 5
Sancta Mater, istud agas, O thou mother, fount of loving,
Crucifigi fuge plagas Crave I utmost pang of sorrow
Corde meo valide. Till I weep with thee.
Tui nati vulnerati, Let my heart burn with consuming
Tam dignati pro me pati, Fire in loving Christ my Savior
Poenas mecum divide. Who has died for me.
7. Cavatina (Second Soprano) 6
Fac ut portem Christi mortem, Sacred mother, take the strokes that Passionis ejus sortem, Smote His bursting heart, and thine,
Et plagas recolare. —Fix them here in mine.
Fac me plagis vulnerari, Share on share give over to me
Cruce hac inebriari, What the sinless Wounded for me
Ob amorem Filii. Bore so heavily.
Give to me repentance cleansing,
Fellowship through tears ascending,
Till I victor be.
Near the cross by thy side standing,
As He his loved John commanding
Saw the loyal face of friend and died;
Virgin, first among all others,
Gracious, chiefest of all mothers,
Touch my heart with sorrow

TEACHERS' COLLEGE NOTES.

Miss Ethel Summy and Miss Kate Moore spent a week in New York at Easter time.

Miss Marietta Stockhard was also a visitor in New York during Easter week.

The public school teachers who are studying at the university are interested in a benefit performance to be given the night of May, third, at the Columbia Theater for the Teachers' Aid and Annuity Association. All college students expecting to attend that evening are urged to obtain bene-

Up in my little head;
But I'm afraid nobody,

Friends of Yours?

A big, black bear, on a holiday,
To the circus tents once made his way.
He thought it would be nice to see
A first class human menagerie.

As he stepped into the crowded tent,
Where strange things were in cages
pent,
A queer beast jumped behind a log;
The "Homo swinus," or End-Seat
Hog.

An animal labeled "Dangers! Care!"
Looked much less fierce than many there.
All blue and red as he wandered past:
"I'm the didn't-know-it-was-loaded ass."

All toggled out in gay array.
Encased in armor for a fray,
A man tore up the ground for joy,
This beast was marked, "A Rah-
Rah Boy."

In one strong cage, in coat of gray,
Was a beast who cried, "Honk-honk," all day.
Over the door, in white and black,
Was the legend, "Motor-Speed
Maniac."

The next box held a creature queer,
"Hit it out," he'd wildly cheer.
He wore no coat, this funny man,
On his hat was a ribbon, "Baseball Fan."

As homeward Bruin made his way,
Those passing heard him softly
say:
"If it's true that ape preceded men,
It's a cinch, man's working back again."

a car and is putting on her gloves.—
That's it, always late. And why can't

This I heard a mother utter.
"Shutter's shut," the boy did mutter,
I can't shut it any shuter."

The case is continued until the next session of the court.

DEPARTMENTAL NOTES.

TEACHERS' COLLEGE.

Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, '14, and Mrs. Charles Ingraham, ex '15, spent the Easter holidays in Blacksburg, Va., as the guest of Miss Eleanor Jones, '13, who is the librarian at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

Miss Genevieve Frizzell, '14, visited her parents in South Carolina during the Easter vacation.

MEDICAL SCHOOL.

A delightful dance was tendered the nurses of the University and Garfield Memorial Hospitals at the Arcade, April 8, by Dr. Wade Atkinson. A large number of medics were present.

John N. Andrews, '16, is acting in the capacity of interne at the Washington Sanitarium Mission Hospital.

Dr. William L. Van Sant, '10, Resident Physician at Garfield Memorial Hospital, is seriously ill.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to R. Bartle Miller, '17, who suffered the loss of his father last week.

LAW SCHOOL.

A sensation was sprung in the Freshman class the other day when George W. Burton gave his recitation in Torts in the form of a poem.

Although the George Washington Easter vacation is not as generously extended as those allowed by northern institutions, yet several members of the school took advantage of the four days' holiday to make flying visits home. Of these perhaps the longest trip was made by Kemper Cowing of the Junior class. Cowing's home is at Muncie, Indiana, and he spent two nights on the train to be at home one.

Lauritz Haugen of the Senior class was one of the unfortunates who selected Atlantic City as the site for his Easter parade. Haugen reports that his vacation was a howling success. He further adds that all the howling was done by a northwest gale which necessitated postponing the resort's famous celebration a week.

It was observed that the majority of the members of the recently organized Chicago branch of the University Alumni Associations were holders of LL. B. degrees. The school expects Chicago to uphold its end valiantly in the coming semi-centennial celebration.

It is rumored that an employment bureau will shortly be instituted in the school. The need of such a feature has been frequently pointed out in this column and the immediate success of the venture is hereby predicted.

To promote general interest in the semi-centennial celebration and to prevent further solicitation or persons who have already subscribed, souvenir buttons are being distributed with each purchase of tickets for the law school dinner. The buttons are decorated with the school colors and bear lettering appropriate to the occasion with the dates 1865-1915 conspicuously displayed. It is expected that the plan will result in an earlier purchase of tickets than usual, thus enabling an accurate forecast of the number expected to attend the dinner.

A special committee composed of M. M. Marcus, J. H. Batt, H. F. Wiegand, P. N. Humphrey, L. T. Breuninger, H. H. Semmes, H. W. Dix, P. A. Chamberlin, G. R. Eudaley and H. T. Shaver, has been appointed to handle the selling of banquet tickets among the juniors. Special committees will shortly be appointed in the other two classes.

Kortright Church has recently returned to school from a business trip.

WITH THE GREEKS.

The Phi Mu Fraternity entertained the professors of the University and the women students at a reception, yesterday. Mrs. Frank Ronaldson Jelliff, patroness of Beta Alpha Chapter, and Miss Elizabeth Boyd, a Phi Mu from North Carolina, assisted.

On Saturday, April 10, Miss Fay Pierce was hostess at a delightful dinner party, when the active members and pledges of Phi Mu were her guests.

Phi Alpha held its spring initiation on Saturday, April 10, 1915. After being acquainted with the mysteries of the order, a banquet was held in the Fraternity House. The new brothers are Frank Lecker, Medical School, '18; Alfred J. Steinberg, A. B., School of Graduate Studies; Edward Alexander Cafritz, Medical School, '17; and M. J. Berman, Columbian College.

A delightful tea was held by the Kappa Sigma Fraternity at its chapter house Sunday afternoon, March 28. Mrs. Miles Poindexter, Mrs. John C. Letts and Mrs. Parmelee presided at the tea table and were assisted by Miss Marie Tunstall, Miss Margaret Trimble and Miss Minnie Letts.

The Order of the Skull and Circle, Sophomore Society, announces the initiation on April 12, 1915, of Kenneth G. Pringle/Law, '16.

This evening Lambda Chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa will hold its regular monthly dinner at the Hotel Hudson at 7 o'clock. It is planned to bring both the active and alumni men together at these informal dinners during the span of the school year and at luncheons during the summer vacation months.

Last Sunday afternoon Phi Sigma Kappa and its friends indulged in a very successful tea at the chapter house. In spite of the rather inclement weather of the early afternoon the chapter had the pleasure of welcoming a large host of guests. Several brothers from out of town were present.

COLUMBIAN TO DEBATE WASHINGTON AND LEE

Negotiations Being Carried on With Washington Debating Society of Lexington, Va.

RULE 45 TO BE DISCUSSED.

Negotiations are being carried on with the Washington Debating Society of Washington and Lee University, of Lexington, Va., in an effort to bring about a debate between that Society and the Columbian Debating Society of the George Washington University. This question for debate has been submitted to the Lexington debaters: "Resolved, That the United States should take steps to increase materially its army and navy." The visitors will have the choice of sides, and it is calculated that the event will occur some time in May.

The Columbian Debating Society met Friday evening and argued the following question: "Resolved, That the United States Senate should adopt a rule that would limit debate on the measures that come before that body." The decision of the judges was in favor of the negative. Messrs. N. E. Larkin and H. Webster of the negative and affirmative, respectively, were first and second honor men, respectively.

The question for debate on February 23rd is: "Resolved, That the rule automatically dismissing from public schools women teachers who marry, is unjust." Affirmative, O. T. Smith, W. R. West; negative, D. A. West and C. Silver.

A meeting of the Senior class will be held this week to elect a representative of the class as a candidate for electing the Association of Class Presidents to the office of Senior Marshal at Commencement.

THREE ENTRANTS FOR DAVIS PRIZE SPEAKING

Ruth Ayler, George W. Hodgkins and Ralph W. Benton Enter Speeches.

JUDGES NOT YET SELECTED.

Miss Ruth Ayler, George Wilson Hodgkins, and Ralph Webster Benton, all of Columbian College, have entered speeches in the annual Davis Prize Speaking Contest which will take place in the Assembly Hall on next Tuesday night. The title of Miss Ayler's speech is "The Point of View"; Mr. Hodgkins will speak on "The Electoral College, Its Purpose and Its Undoing"; Mr. Benton will take as his subject "The Quest for Eldorado."

The judges for the contest have not as yet been selected but it is understood that they will be men prominent in the affairs of the school and of the city. Last year and in all the previous years these speeches have attracted large turnouts and it is expected that the hall will be filled to its capacity.

TERRY AUTOMATICALLY ELECTED B. B. MANAGER

Failure of Students to Nominate Others Elects the Only Nominee.

TO ARRANGE GOOD SCHEDULE.

On account of the failure of the students of the University to nominate more than one person for the position of Manager of the Basketball Team for 1915-16 after the fact that nominations were in order had been duly announced in the Hatchet, the sole nominee, Leo C. Terry of Columbian College, was automatically elected and is now the holder of this office.

In the Hatchet of March 26, a notice appeared to the effect that these nominations must be in the hands of the officers of the Athletic Association on or before Saturday, April 3. The only nomination was signed by the following: Melville R. Walton, Lewis T. Leonard, Claude R. Breneman, H. I. Moxingo, G. R. Sterling, Erwin Harsch, Carl F. Snyder, Hal L. Enlows, Harry K. Gilman, R. C. Doyle.

Terry is quite well-known to the members of the student body generally, having been this year the Financial Secretary of the Athletic Association. Last year he was the President of his class and was both last year and this the president of the Glee Club.

Terry has plans under consideration which will broaden and make much more important the scope of the schedule of the basketball team for next year, and is confident of engineering the team through a good season with the support of the students.

THE ENOSINIAN MEETS.

Elections Set for Next Meeting on April 30.

A meeting of a number of interested students was held in the Hatchet office Wednesday night and plans were made for a meeting to elect officers of the Enosinian Society, the meeting to be held in the Assembly Hall on April 30. A committee to report nominations at that time consisting of A. McC. Brown, Law, '15; E. M. Jeffrey, Law, '16; E. L. Kayser, T. C., '18; P. E. Taylor, Law, '17, and W. Gilligan, C. C., '19, was appointed by the present president, Howard W. Hodgkins, Law, '15.

It is hoped to have Dean Wilbur and other members of the faculty present on April 30 and by notices given to the classes, placed on the bulletin boards and in the Hatchet, it is expected to have a large number present at that meeting.

All students of the University, both men and women, of all departments are eligible for membership, and an invitation is extended to all to be present at the next meeting.

IMPATIENT CO-EDS IN MOCK WEDDING

Entertainment Given Under the Auspices of Women's University Club.

SENIORS ONLY TAKE PART.

Slowly advancing down the aisle of the Assembly Hall on the night of Wednesday, April 7, her steps guided by the strange thrills of the majestic strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, Miss Anna Washington Craton, as the "man for an hour," the bridegroom, led in triumph her blushing bride, Miss Letitia Southgate, to the nuptial altar and there, after receiving her formally from her mother, Miss Elsa Weber, took the solemn vows of marriage at the hand of our dignified rector, erstwhile librarian, Miss Edith Blinston Lowe. The maid of honor attending the affair, oh, we mean the bride, was none other than Miss Alice Griffith, while little Miss Elsie Saunders had the honor of carrying the marital bouquets. The ushers were two promising young men, Miss Sylvia Jane Hazlett and Miss Frederika Neuman.

All would have gone well had not the jilted suitor, for the fair hand of the bride been present in the person of Miss Helen Cam, who proceeded to make her (his) presence known by objecting strenuously to the ceremony at the point where the rector had just pronounced the words, "—let him speak now or forever hereafter hold his peace." After "canning" the objector, the proceedings went on.

Relatives of the groom who were present were Miss Mary H. (Daisy) Watkins, his mother, Miss Nell Rae MacFarlane, his sister, and Mrs. Ella Morgan Austin Enlows, his father.

Since this was a "hen" party, so to speak, the lady reporters sent in a description of the men's attire rather than the women's (which, by the way, we are assured were "fetching"), couched in terms like these: "All the gentlemen were neatly habilitated in the conventional formal garments (borrowed or purloined from brothers and sweethearts, we think) of the day."

A mixed dance, composed of all women, followed the ceremony and after the dance and the refreshments which followed, the cast was photographed by the staff photographer. For divers and sundry reasons we are compelled to refrain from publishing the pictures.
